

Wild River California Kiwi Promotion

Grown in Marysville alongside the Yuba River, which surges out of the rugged Sierra Nevada Mountains into the fertile Sacramento Valley.

As an industry pioneer, Wild River has seen it all. In the 1970s, Gordon Noland and his young son, Mike, planted some of the first kiwifruit vines to take root on US soil. Since then, these vineyards have flourished along the fertile bank of the Yuba River.

20x1# cello bags Hayward Kiwi
16x1# clams Hayward Kiwi

Fun Fact: Known as the #2 most nutrient-rich fruit in the world, kiwifruit has been dubbed nature's vitamin capsule, packed with an abundance of vitamins and antioxidants!

