

CALIFORNIA GROWN

Local California Organic Cherries

Cherry Varieties

California has a combination of nutrient-rich soil, abundant sunshine, and mild temperatures, producing deliciously sweet cherries. California's organic cherry season goes into June and then transitions to the Pacific Northwest.

Tioga: Very sweet, similar to the Bing

Royal Hazel: Beautiful shiny cherry with sweet firm pink flesh

Coral: Low acid, sweet like a Bing

Brooks: Slightly tart - ideal for baking and snacking

Rainier: Golden base with a red, orange and pink blush

Bing: Superb flavor and firm, juicy acidic flesh

Lapins: Slightly tart, prized for eating, baking, preserving

Chelan: Mild, sweet flavor. Attractive mahogany red skin.
